(b) CLERICAL AMENDMENT.—The table of sections at the beginning of such chapter is amended by inserting after the item relating to section 531 the following:

“532. Authority to advertise in national media.”.

PURPOSE AND SUMMARY

H.R. 3681 was introduced on September 27, 2007, by Representative John Boozman of Arkansas, the Ranking Member of the Subcommittee on Economic Opportunity, and cosponsored by Representative Stephanie Herseth Sandlin of South Dakota, the Chairwoman of the Subcommittee on Economic Opportunity. The legislation would authorize the Secretary of the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) to purchase advertising in national media outlets to promote awareness of veterans’ benefits.

BACKGROUND AND DISCUSSION

Advertising by the Department of Defense (DoD) has been shown to be an effective tool for outreach to the public and has increased the number of high-quality enlistments for the DoD, as demonstrated by a study prepared for the Secretary of Defense (James N. Dertouzos, Steven Garber, Is Military Advertising Effective?: An Estimation Methodology and Application to Recruiting in the 1980s and 90s) (Rand, 2003). Television advertising accounts for more than 50 percent of DoD-wide advertising expenditures. Extrapolating from the success that DoD has had with their use of television advertising, the VA should adopt a similar blueprint. H.R. 3681 would assist in addressing the VA’s public outreach deficiency to veterans and their families. Issues such as veteran homelessness, economic opportunities, and suicide have received much attention recently. The VA should seek to address these pressing issues with its media strategy.

Prohibitions against using appropriated funds for “publicity or propaganda” purposes have been in place since 1951. It is a violation of the Anti-Deficiency Act, 5 U.S.C. § 1341, to expend appropriated funds for publicity or propaganda purposes. This prohibition was most recently applied to funds appropriated to the VA by Public Law 110–161, the Consolidated Appropriations Act of 2008. Section 404 of title IV of Division I states:

No part of any funds appropriated in this Act shall be used by an agency of the executive branch, other than for normal and recognized executive-legislative relationships, for publicity or propaganda purposes, and for the preparation, distribution or use of any kit, pamphlet, booklet, publication, radio, television or film presentation designed to support or defeat legislation pending before Congress, except in presentation to Congress itself.

Although Executive Branch Departments and Agencies are prohibited from using appropriated funds to engage in “publicity or propaganda,” there is no such prohibition against disseminating information about current benefits, policies and activities. Military recruiting advertising campaigns are a primary example of an acceptable use of appropriated funds. The Committee believes that advertising the availability of veterans’ benefits and services by the VA would not violate the “publicity or propaganda” clause and would be an important tool for the Department to further its outreach goals regarding programs administered by the VA.

The DoD uses advertising expenditures to highlight benefits such as education under the GI Bill to recruit servicemembers; therefore, the VA should use the power of the media to conduct outreach and educate veterans about the VA benefits they have earned through military service. Although the Committee believes that the VA already possesses the authority to undertake such advertising, H.R. 3681 provides clear and concise authority for the VA to purchase advertising to promote awareness of veterans’ benefits.

Enclosure

H.R. 3681—Veterans Benefits Awareness Act of 2007

H.R. 3681 would clarify that the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) has the authority to advertise in the national media for the purposes of promoting awareness of VA programs to prevent suicide and provide other benefits.

VA reports that it currently has authority to advertise in the national media but uses it rarely. Therefore, CBO estimates that implementing H.R. 3681 would have no effect on the federal budget.

H.R. 3681 contains no intergovernmental or private-sector mandates as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act and would not affect the budgets of state, local, or tribal governments.

The CBO staff contact for this estimate is Dwayne M. Wright. This estimate was approved by Theresa Gullo, Deputy Assistant Director for Budget Analysis.

FEDERAL MANDATES STATEMENT

The Committee adopts as its own the estimate of Federal mandates regarding H.R. 3681 prepared by the Director of the Congressional Budget Office pursuant to section 423 of the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act.

ADVISORY COMMITTEE STATEMENT

No advisory committees within the meaning of section 5(b) of the Federal Advisory Committee Act would be created by H.R. 3681.

CONSTITUTIONAL AUTHORITY STATEMENT

Pursuant to clause 3(d)(1) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives, the Committee finds that the Constitutional authority for H.R. 3681 is provided by Article I, section 8 of the Constitution of the United States.

APPLICABILITY TO LEGISLATIVE BRANCH

The Committee finds that the legislation does not relate to the terms and conditions of employment or access to public services or accommodations within the meaning of section 102(b)(3) of the Congressional Accountability Act.

SECTION-BY-SECTION ANALYSIS OF THE LEGISLATION

Section 1. Short title

This section would provide the short title of H.R. 3681 as the “Veterans Benefits Awareness Act of 2008.”

Section 2. Authority of Secretary of Veterans Affairs to advertise to promote awareness of benefits under laws administered by the Secretary

This section would amend section 532 of title 38, United States Code to provide the Secretary of Veterans Affairs with the authority to advertise in national media outlets for the purpose of promoting awareness of benefits under laws administered by the Secretary.
